GOLD STANDARD OF HIDDEN CAMERA

There's no sound, but there sure are plenty of laughs.

This crazy Quebec-based troupe uses the city as its stage, and its inhabitants, or victims, as characters! People are caught in a twisted yet funny web of comedic deception.

This updated «Candid Camera» is a tad more risqué and a little kookier with its practical jokes. The little snippets last only a few minutes, and some look more painful than others.

Un événement historique sur les Plaines d'Abraham.

Afin de célébrer les 50 ans du spectacle mythique « J'ai vu le loup, le renard, le lion », un événement qui a marqué l'histoire en attirant près de 100 000 personnes autour d'un concert mémorable sur les Plaines d'Abraham en 1974, la SuperFrancoFête convie à nouveau le public dans ce lieu emblématique pour vivre un moment tout aussi magique et historique !

Les artistes, formant un seul et même groupe, invite le public à "jamer" avec eux. Ensemble, ils interprètent avec passion les grands classiques de la chanson québécoise qui ont marqué leur parcours artistique, transportant l'audience à travers les différentes époques de notre riche histoire musicale depuis 1974. Chaque artiste participe aux chansons des autres, créant ainsi un seul et unique groupe où le partage et la collaboration seront au cœur de chaque performance.

Avec une mise en scène à couper le souffle comprenant des acrobates, des projections, des confettis, des lasers et bien plus encore, l'événement Plaines de chansons est aussi visuellement spectaculaire. Jamais un déploiement artistique de cette envergure n'a été vu. La diversité et le talent des artistes présents rejoignent toutes les générations.

Do you remember your first trip?

In 1991, I was a 21 years old student. Everyone had plans to travel. Some were heading West, others to the U.S.A, I decided to go to Italy. Was I answering the call of my roots ? No, I wanted to follow the love of my life.

In 1981, It was Anne Tremblay. In 1987, I changed my mind for Marie-Josée Lebel. But it was really in 1991 that I met the love of my life : Marie-Eve Bernard. I was ready to do everything for her and when she asked me to meet her in Perugia, I followed her and, as usual, it was complicated!

"IN THE HEART OF EGYPT, HE FINDS HIS TRUE SELF"

In 1994, Ricardo's aspirations of becoming a filmmaker had dimmed. At the age of twenty-four, he seemed to have resigned himself to being just another faceless individual in the vast sea of consumer culture.

However, an unexpected call from Radio-Canada, informing him that he was a finalist for the 1994-95 edition of the competition "La Course autour du monde", reignited his dormant passion for the arts.

Ricardo's moment had arrived. His selection marked the beginning of a new chapter in his life.

Tasked by the national broadcaster to create a series of short films across the globe, we catch up with Ricardo in Egypt, amid the broadcasted competition. Battling a series of challenges while attempting to produce a four-minute film on female genital mutilation, Ricardo finds himself at a crossroads, contemplating his identity and his legitimacy as an artist.

Bienvenue au chalet de Martin Petit ! Chaque semaine, l'humoriste accueille un duo issu de la grande famille du monde de l'humour pour un week-end de pêche dans un décor rustique et bucolique !

Loin de la ville et de la vie familiale, Martin et ses amis vivront des situations surprenantes et amusantes, d'autant plus qu'ils nous sont présentés tels qu'on les connaît ! Véritables exercices de style humoristique, spécialement écrits pour les invités, ces situations s'inspirent de délicieux sketches que Martin Petit a souvent interprétés sur scène (Trois gars en chaloupe, etc.).

Écrite par Martin Petit et réalisée par Jean-François Asselin (Nos étés, François en série, etc.), la série Les pêcheurs est une rencontre entre des univers comiques éclectiques qui s'entrechoquent, se complètent et se transforment, où nos humoristes préférés jouent leur propre rôle, sans artifice ni compromis !
